

References for Conference Call

Tracking the Success of the Alert Program®

Sherry Shellenberger, OTR/L and Molly McEwen, MHS, OTR/L, FAOTA

October 23, 2012

The following resources are listed in the order (approximate) that they were mentioned in the Conference Call. Please note that some of the resources are no longer available. As the internet continues to evolve, we cannot control access to the web pages or blog posts of others. We hope that if a specific resource is unavailable, you'll be able to find something similar using the unavailable titles as keywords in an internet search.

- Powerpoint Presentation on ABCs of Program Evaluation – no longer available
- Comprehensive program Evaluation description including: “Blueprint for Conducting Project-Level Evaluation” – no longer available
- Planning a Program Evaluation Worksheet – no longer available
- Browse through the many Step-by-Step Manuals, Logic Models, and Data Collection
- “How Does Your Engine Run?®” A Leader’s Guide to the Alert Program® for Self-Regulation

Updated: February 28, 2022

About Molly McEwen

Molly McEwen, MHS, OTR/L, FAOTA has a professional career spanning over 35 years during which time she has worked in major medical centers, public and private schools and universities including Texas Health Science Center at Dallas, Texas Woman’s University and Pacific University in Oregon. She has established and maintained a private practice serving children and youth, developed a private professional continuing education business and provided consultative services to education institutions and industry. Molly has received both state and national awards for contributions to the profession and is continually promoting occupational therapy as a cost effective approach in supporting and maintaining healthy communities. Her professional and research interests focus on expanding the role and practice of OT, with particular interest in program evaluation--- how practitioners can generate data to reflect their unique contributions to the organizations in which they practice. She currently consults from her home base in Hillsboro, Oregon. To learn more about Tracking the Success of the Alert Program®, email to: manager@AlertProgram.com

Common Sense Disclaimer

As responsible adults, we must use common sense when supporting others.

If you are unsure of something that has been mentioned here, have questions, or just don't have a good feeling about trying something, trust your judgment and don't do it! I encourage you to seek help from a trained professional (often an OT in your area) or you can purchase consultation time with us here at TWI. You deserve support!

To learn more about additional distance learning options, research, articles or Alert Program® books, games, and songs go to:

www.AlertProgram.com